

Homeless -To - Home Program

Are you currently unhoused and need Rental Assistance to MOVE into Housing?

For eligible clients, the Homeless 2 Home (H2H) program offers a voucher that will be issued directly to your landlord, providing up to $1,000 in assistance. To qualify for this voucher, you must meet all the program's eligibility requirements and submit all the necessary documentation.

To apply for the H2H program, please ensure you meet the following eligibility requirements:

1. Current Homelessness: You are currently experiencing homelessness, which we define as; couch surfing and do not want to be, living in your car, or living on the streets, our organization considers you homeless.
2. Employment Status: You are currently employed and have been with your current employer for at least 30 days.
3. Minimum Income: You must earn a minimum of $1,100 per month from employment income only. Income must come from working a job—benefits, disability payments, unemployment, or any other non-employment income will not be accepted.
4. Maximum Income: you can earn no more than $3,000 per month after all/any deductions have been taken out.
5. Completion of Required Courses: These courses do not expire. If you are not approved at this time, you may reapply in the future using the same certificates.
 - o Independent Living Preparation Course: During this course, you will create a budget showing that, if placed into housing, your income exceeds your expenses. This budget must be submitted as part of your documentation.

6. Required Documentation:

- o Certificates of Completion for both the Independent Living Preparation Course and the Financial Literacy and Career Readiness Course.
- o Government issued identification, must be current and not expired.
- o Completed H2H Application
- o 30 days of paycheck stubs to verify your income.
- o Budget created during the Independent Living Preparation Course, demonstrating that your income exceeds your expenses if placed into housing.
- o Resume and Cover Letter created during the Financial Literacy and Career Readiness Course.
- o Complete Lease Agreement: You must submit all pages to the approved lease agreement, signed by all parties (leasing agent and the tenants). This must be permanent housing, no weekly, monthly, or transitional housing will be accepted. Subleasing does not qualify, all lease agreements must be from the property owner or leasing agency.

These requirements are designed to ensure that you are put in a position to succeed upon placement. We are here to support you every step of the way and look forward to assisting you on your journey to stable housing.
